MASTERS MESSAGE: JAMES R. SCOTT JR, WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Brethren all;

As I stated in our April Trestle Board, the Grand Masters visit was a success with Occoquan Lodge having the only widows in attendance. A special 'Thank You' to Mrs. Peggy Sullivan, widow of RWB John L. Sullivan, and Mrs. Maggie Parrish, widow of Bro. Lexie C. Parrish. They were received by Lady Judith, the Grand Masters wife, and given a beautiful medallion of the square and compasses with the 'forget me not' flowers on top, which Maggie was very familiar with, along with a very nice poem.

While at the GM's visit, Mrs. Sullivan had a great idea, which I plan to use at our celebration. That will be to have a table set up with memorabilia from years past. I would encourage anyone who has something that they would like to share, to bring it along for display. Great idea Peggy!

Our Secretary has been sending out invitations to our 100th celebration and has received a very positive response for attendance and donations to help cover the cost. To answer many of the questions about the celebration, yes, it is ok, and encouraged to bring any family member, friend, relative or sibling to the event. This will not be a 'Tiled' meeting.

WB Walt Peterman did an outstanding job of assisting me in the East at the April stated meeting. I think he even enjoyed being in the 'hot seat' again! Good job Walt!

If any of the Past Masters, that live in the area or plan to be at one of our stated meetings, would like to join me, please let me know and I will try to schedule you for that month.

Talk about traveling, three of our members traveled to PA. To visit one of our Past Masters, WB Joel Klimoski, who is the present Master of his Lodge in PA. Unfortunately, they did not have five members present to claim a 'Fraternal Visit'. But I am sure WB Joel appreciated the visit. Thank you Brothers Bailey, Thompson and Alexander.

In closing, I would like to thank all the members who have helped in some way or another in making this year a success so far.

Please continue to support our Eastern Star, DeMolay, and Jobbies.

Fraternally,

Jim
